ADA OKLAHOMA, TUESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 25, 1910.

NUMBER 172

YOU need the service we render in the matter of good clothes. It's a service nobody else can render you; because nobody else has in this town; and we think nobody else has quite the same idea we have about the proper functions of a clothing store.

Our idea is to see that our customers get exactly what they ought to have; if you come here we'll try to show you what will be really best for you; the color, the style, the weave, the model that is best suited to your special case. We'll try not to think we know more about what you want than you do. But we do know something about styles, and best fabrics; and we can tell if a suit or overcoat looks right on you; fits properly; is becoming to you.

It's just as much to our interest as to yours to get you into the right thing. We can afford to be disinterested about these things; but we can't afford to let you go anywhere else for clothes when we know we've got the best clothes made.

WITH THE CITY COUNCILMEN

The city council met in regular session last night with all members present.

After allowing bills amounting to about $32.50, the petition, signed by the requisite number of qualified electors, requesting the mayor to call an election on the commission form of government on the next regular election day was presented. The petition was granted, that is, the primary for the election of freeholders to draft a charter for the commission government will be held. But before the council took final action on the petition, there was a general discussion as to the probable advantages and disadvantages of the proposed commission government. Some desired enlightenment as to how the commission form works, and as to the proper procedure in the calling of the election of freeholders, securing the charter and the election of the commissioners, and others compared the expense of running a city's business under the present system and under the new.

The unfavorable features of the commission form for a city of this size were clearly brought out, and these are as follows: It would cost twelve or fifteen hundred dollars more in salaries at least; it would be turning the city over to two or three men, and does not put the city government above politics.

The favorable features made manifest were that all cities that have used the commission form have found it a great deal more profitable and satisfactory, and would not revert to their former systems; that this city has a volume of business sufficient to demand the entire time of expert electors, which should be done on business principles just the same as the business of any large successful corporation. The saving in expenditures would thus save to the city more than the difference in the salaries of the aldermen and the commissioners; for councilmen meet at night to transact the city's business, often they are tired mentally and physically, and if they get things right, it is a likely to be by "chit rather than wit."

After instructing Attorney Thos. P. Holt to prosecute the old telephone suit and perfecting the agreement with Mel Davis to put up the street names and numbers, the council instructed the water committee to contract with some one to fix the city well and the street committee to have 12th street cleaned off and adjourned.

MRS. MC GUERREN WILL AID PROHIBITION CAUSE

Considerable money must be raised by election time to carry on the temperance movement, this war against whisky. Among the many who are rallying to the support of this cause is Mrs. Perle Dunham McGuerren who has graciously consented to give a recital, the entire proceeds to be devoted to temperance work.

Mrs. McGuerren is an impersonator of well known ability having appeared in many of our large cities with success. She will give humorous impersonations, cuttings from popular books, scenes from plays, etc. There will be a musical support. The evening as planned will give pleasure to all, the date being Thursday Nov. 3 and place the city hall. The most prominent people of the city are back of this and there is a boosting committee from every church, lodge and other organization of the city, as this recital promises to be one of the big affairs of the season.

NOTICE.

The Character Builders will have a called meeting tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Methodist church. MRS. JNO. RINARD, Secretary.

WIT AND WISDOM

COL. J. W. JOHNSON AND GEN. BRANT KIRK WILL TALK AT ADA TOMORROW EVENING.

Col. J. W. Johnson, a noted lawyer and eloquent campaigner has been invited to address the citizen of Ada tomorrow evening at the court house. He is at Coalgate today, but we expect him here tomorrow. He is a man who has made a close study of the questions of the day and can express them so clearly that a child can understand them. We also have another man here who will entertain the crowd as few others can. We refer, of course, to Gen. Brant Kirk of Oklahoma City.

When the four candidates for governor addressed the people of Ada in the summer none held the attention of the crowd better nor was more entertaining than Gen. Brant Kirk. Kirk is an apostle of sunshine and good nature. Nature endowed him with an abundant supply of wit and he knows how to use it. This fact makes him one of the best campaigners that ever took the stump. His method of driving home his points by means of humor never fails to interest his hearers. We will have the opportunity to hear him at the court house tomorrow evening. You have paid half a dollar many a time to hear lectures nothing like as good as you will hear then without costing you a cent.

Mr. Kirk was one of the prominent speakers at the Confederate reunion held here three years ago and many heard him at that time as well as during the past summer.

Man Not Dead—May Recover.

R. C. Roland phones from Chickasha that the man reported to have been killed by Will and Clarence Huff is still alive with good prospects for his recovery. It appears that he became involved in a fight with Will Huff and that Clarence went to his brother's assistance, and thus became involved in the trouble.

Disturbing the Peace.

Henry Burr of Hunton, plead guilty in county court to disturbing the peace, yesterday; and paid his fine and cost. It is alleged that he disturbed the peace of Jim Ross of the same community by using some blankety blank words in Ross' presence and directed to him.

DEMOCRATIC HOUSE IN SIGHT

ROOSEVELT THE DISTURBING FACTOR IN REPUBLICAN RANKS.

HOT FIGHT IN OHIO

Foraker May Have Big Knife Out for Teddy.

Washington, Oct. 23.—The last two weeks before the campaign may not change the present general aspect, but may overturn calculations here and there. With such an interesting figure as Col. Roosevelt in the spotlight, these last two weeks are sure to be crowded with political thrills, chief among these being the prospective invasion by Col. Roosevelt of Ohio, where the stage is set for a hard line up over the old Foraker-Roosevelt feud.

The former Ohio Senator's speech at Marysville, Ohio, on Saturday sounded the war-cry of the reactionaries against the progressive movement, which he declared more respectable than the southern secession, and nobody expects Col. Roosevelt to fail to pay his respects to Mr. Foraker when he gets into Ohio.

New York Battle.

It is in New York however, where the next two weeks will count heaviest. In that time the republicans may pull themselves together. Indications in the last few days are that some kind of a political mutation is under way. While there has not been an actual change, it is at least certain that there has been discovered a strong sentiment which has not been sufficiently considered in previous calculations.

It is an indication that the multitude is not following the personal issue of Roosevelt, as mapped out by the democratic campaign, but the cleavage is becoming steadily more marked between radicalism and reaction, and between the intermediate stages of progressiveness and conservatism. It is manifested, for one thing, in the recently discovered fact that many democrats who are better radicals than democrats will either vote for Stimson or will abstain from voting. It is said that these are only the extreme Bryan democrats and "near Socialists," and that the Bryan campaigns have shown that they are comparatively scarce in New York, yet this is a development that is partly responsible for the revised opinion of observers that New York may yet see even money on Stimson. A fighting chance is, however, the very best that the more optimistic republicans are hoping for in New York.

Important Factors.

There have been several important factors that also are in part responsible for the coming to the fore of the radical sentiment. One is that until within a few days ago the democratic speakers were all corporation men of the pronounced type of Judge Alton B. Parker; another is the Hearst influence in opposition to the democratic organization, and another is the success which attended the republican effort to turn the public attention from Roosevelt to Candidate Dix himself.

This was accomplished jointly by Candidate Stimson and Col. Roosevelt, the former charging that the democratic candidate had opposed a reduction of the protective tariff on wall paper before the Payne committee, and Col. Roosevelt charging though this has been emphatically denied, that Candidate Dix's wall paper company, is part of the wall paper trust.

Roosevelt and Taft.

So far, Col. Roosevelt has ignored the attempts to force him to declare himself in regard to the 1912 Presidential situation, but his trusty lieutenant, Col. Loeb, has been giving out interviews in Washington to the effect that Col. Roosevelt and President Taft are now in complete rapport and intimating that Col. Roosevelt will be found at the proper time lined up for President Taft for reelection. At the same time it is announced that Col. Roosevelt will go into Ohio and make a fight for the republican ticket, which is running on the record of the administration in Washington. In the interim this very versatile campaigner finds it not inconsistent to slip into Massachusetts and pronounce the arch reactionary, Senator Lodge, a progressive, and then in the course of the same twenty-four hours to go into New Hampshire and laud the New Hampshire brand of progressiveness, which is just the opposite of that for which Senator Lodge stands.

House May Be Democratic.

As the campaign is drawing to a close every indication is that the House will be democratic and the constant revision of the estimates by the investigators appears to affect only the question of the size of the democratic majority. No independent student of the situation is putting the democratic majority at such a large figure as to eliminate importance of the progressive republican element as a factor in the work of the next congress. The democratic congressional committee stands alone in its calculation of 25 or 28 majority in the Sixty-Second congress.

Getting Ready for District Court.

Capt. W. T. Cox and his efficient deputy, Alex Rhea, are busy setting the docket for the next regular term of district court which, if it comes off as scheduled by law, will begin the first Monday in November. It is said, however, that it is possible that this term may be passed up, although this report is little more than rumor.

BANK GUARANTY LAW BEFORE COURT

Washington, Oct. 24.—The supreme court today entered an order whereby the whole state guaranty bank question, as it is now before the court from three states, is to be settled at one time. The validity of the Kansas law, the Nebraska law and the Oklahoma law is on the docket for review and decision by this court. The first of these cases is from Oklahoma and today the Nebraska and Kansas cases were advanced so as to be taken up simultaneously with the Oklahoma case. In connection with this order the court dismissed without opinion as to its merits the case of National banks of Abilene, Kan., attacking the constitutionality of the Kansas guaranty bank law. This action was taken as the whole ground of the Kansas bank guaranty law will be covered in the case to be disposed of when the Nebraska and Oklahoma cases are decided.

Few Paying Taxes Yet.

Payments on 1910 taxes may be made any time after Oct. 15, but Lee Eddleman, deputy treasurer, states that comparatively nothing has yet been paid in. The rush will likely begin in another week or two, however.

WHAT McNEAL THOUGHT OF US.

Joe McNeal would probably give much if the people of the old Indian Territory would forget some things about his utterances concerning them before statehood. Here are some excerpts from his testimony given before the committee which had the statehood bill under consideration. These are from the official journal of the committee:

Mr. McNeal: It seems to me there should be no difficulty in that. The simple way would be to settle it all at once. If it is the wisdom of congress that the future State of Oklahoma should include what is now known as the Five Civilized Tribes, on that point I wish to reiterate the statement that our people feel that they are willing to wait until such time as the people of the Five Civilized Tribes are ready for government. They feel that they have developed the country, the school system and society—they have developed everything that goes to make a state happy and prosperous, while the people of the tribes have not done so.

Mr. McGuire: What percentage of the people do you feel Mr. McNeal, from your knowledge of the present conditions—the chaotic conditions in the Indian Territory—what percentage of the people favor the immediate union of the two Territories?

Mr. McNeal: I do not believe it would exceed 10 or 15 per cent in favor of union at this time. I want to say that the only people who take that position are those who are interested selfishly in what they believe to be a promising capital location.

You take the sentiment of the people of Oklahoma outside of the localities where it is molded and framed upon the sentiment of the people of Oklahoma City and Shawnee—where it is based largely upon their ambition to become the capital of the future state—and you will find 90 per cent of them are one way, and they want statehood for Oklahoma. They feel that an outrage would be perpetrated upon them to allow the Indian Territory to come in upon an equal representation with them. You go ahead and provide for the courts and provide for the election of delegates. They have no regular organization like we have in Oklahoma, by which the governor and others fix the basis of representation. It is entirely arbitrary. And they come in there, a motley mass, and have no thought at all along those lines with us, and yet they are on a par with us, and they have not the population that we have.

Commission Government.

Now that the council has ordered an election for freeholders to write the new charter for Ada, it is up to the people to select their most competent representatives to do the work. Much of the future welfare of the city depends on the manner in which these eight men perform their work. We want men whose experience in business has been sufficiently board to enable them to grasp the question that will confront them, and provide for a charter based on sound business principles without putting in a lot of untried theories. None of us will be satisfied with every particular of any charter that can be drawn, but by exercising sound judgment in selecting the eight men we can get an instrument that will meet our approval sufficiently to be worthy of the united support of the citizens of Ada.

A good many of us Democrats have had occasion to express opinions of Frank Greer and his State Capital which flavored more of sulphur fumes than of violets and roses. While every word was justified, we think it would be well for all to remember the words of Capt. Philip at the battle of Santiago: "Don't cheer boys, the poor devils are dying."

Says the Jenks Herald: "The nigger is an American citizen, and should have the right to cast his vote the same as a white man." A bright notion, truly. Have you ever looked up the history of the 14th and 15th amendments which Thad Stevens and his corps of radicals attempted to force down the throats of the Southern people at the point of the bayonet? Have you noticed how the supreme court has always side stepped passing on those pieces of villany, and rather than risk forcing a decision the republicans have always been afraid to tackle the question of reducing Southern representation?

The voters should not confound the amendment to Art. 9, Sec. 9, of the constitution that they will vote on in November with the Carter amendment voted on in June. This one was proposed by the legislature before Carter got busy and differs from it in that although it permits foreign and domestic corporations to consolidate, it expressly provides that the commission loses none of its authority by said merger. We were opposed to the Carter amendment, but personally the present editor of the News has always favored the adoption of the one submitted by the legislature.

You can't expect the nation to take the political game as seriously as it should until the "world series" is over. The question of supremacy between the Athletics and Cubs is now the overshadowing issue.—Durant Democrat.

It's settled now, the bets have been paid and the people will have about two weeks in which to watch the political game.

After a careful examination of the so-called high license amendment Bill Murray says that all the power left for the legislature is to provide some penalty for violation of the law in the country districts. It will not have the power to regulate the business in the towns.

The present city council has been a progressive one. It has done much for the advancement of the town and if the city's affairs are turned over to a commission composed of men equally progressive, things will hum around here.

When you hear a republican denouncing the "extravagance" of the Haskell administration ask him why the republicans in the legislature voted solid in favor of the appropriation bills they now so viciously denounce.

"We've All Our Angel Side."

The huge, rough stone from out the mine, unsightly and unfair;
Has veins of purest metal hid beneath the surface there;
Few rocks so bare but to their heights, some tiny moss-plant clings,
And on the peaks so desolate the seabirds sit and sing,
And believe me, too, that rugged souls beneath the rudeness hide,
Much that is beautiful and good—we've all our angel sides.

In all there is an inner depth, a far-off, secret way,
Where, through the windows of the soul, God sends his smiling ray;
In every human heart there is a faithful, sundry chord,
That may be struck unknown to us, by some sweet, loving word,
The wayward will in men, may try its softer thoughts to hide—

Despised, and lone, and trodden down dark with the shades of sin,
Deciphering not those hallowed lights which God has lit within;
Groping about in endless night, poor, poisoned souls they are;
Who guess not what life's meaning is, nor dream of Heaven afar,
Oh! that some gentle hand of love their stumbling steps would guide,
And show them that amidst it all life has its angel side.

Brutal, and mean, and dark enough, God knows some people are,
But He, compassionate, comes near, and shall we stand afar?
Our curse of oil shall not grow less if shared with hearty hand,
For word of peace, and looks of love, few natures can withstand,
Love is the mighty conqueror; love is a beauteous guide,
And love, with her beaming eyes, can see we've all our angel side.

Two fried eggs; don't fry 'em too hard, orders another.
Adam and Eve in the garden. Leave their eyes open! bawls the waiter.
Poached eggs on toast, says a customer.
Bride and groom on a raft, shouts the waiter.
Chicken croquette, says a customer.
Fowl Ball, shouts the waiter.
Hash, says another.
Gentleman wants to take a chance, bawls the waiter.
I'll have hash, too, says the next customer.
Another sport, shouts the waiter.
Glass of milk, says the customer.
Let it rain! cries the waiter.
Frankfurters and sauerkraut, good and hot, says a customer.

Pido, Shep and a bale of hay, shouts the waiter; and let them sizzle.
In some of the eating houses when one orders his dinner to be served in a hurry the waiter closes his call by shouting, "One Katy Flyer!"

No Danger from Injunction.
Some fear has been expressed that a federal court injunction may hold up the enforcement of the grandfather clause. We have asked the opinion of some attorneys who know more about legal processes than we do, among them Bill Murray, and they tell us that a blanket injunction covering the entire negro population, cannot be issued. Each negro affected would have to make application to be included under its protection, and that will be an impossibility before the coming election. A few may make it but not a sufficient number to affect the general result.

NEW GOODS, NEW METHODS,

It's Individuality makes it popular. All of our goods are new, no danger of buying last season's styles here. We are not the largest store in Ada but we can say without fear of contradiction that

We Carry More Suits, Coats, Capes, Ladies', Misses' and Infants' Ready-to-wear Apparel

Than any other store in Pontotoc county. The strongest argument that can be made in favor of this store is the fact that we have sold a large number of ladies who are exacting and know meritorious garments when they see them. :- :- :- :- :- :- :- :- :- :- :-

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Richard Flood returned from Oklahoma City this morning.

A. J. Long, train dispatcher, was over from Francis yesterday afternoon.

J. B. Gray, who has been here looking after some business affairs, returned to Allen this morning.

Deputy U. S. Marshall L. W. Early of McAlester was here on official business from Ardmore this morning.

H. W. Turner who has been visiting M. C. Turner at Center returned to his home at Platter this morning.

Judge Tom D. McKeown took the Katy for Atoka this morning where he will do some campaigning this week.

R. B. Wright, who is delegate from Colbert local, left this morning to attend the A. H. T. A. at Tahlequah.

H. L. Crouch was called to Fayetteville, Ark., yesterday because of the serious illness of his wife and his son.

H. M. Goad is over from Stratford and this morning gladdened the heart of the editor with the price of a subscription.

Rev. O. E. Fowler went over to Konawa yesterday afternoon to hear Bill Murray speak. He reports a good crowd and rousing meeting.

Wm. H. Murray passed through this morning en route home from Konawa. He will spend next week campaigning in Johnston county.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Forbes were here this morning from Francis on their way to Texas where they will probably make their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Harris of Oklahoma City returned home yesterday afternoon after a visit with F. O. Harris.

N. B. Stall will leave this afternoon for Oklahoma City, where he will attend the state convention of photographers which will be in session during the next three days.

Rev. W. J. Shipman and Prof. A. L. Fentem left this morning for Franks where they will speak this evening on the whisky amendment. They will go to Jesse tomorrow and Stonewall Thursday.

Come and see the great cooking wonder at our store all this week. You have a chance to get a Souvenir Set of Ware Free. See large advertisement in tomorrow's paper. R. E. Haynes, Ada, Okla. 172-11d

The W. C. T. U. will have a called meeting Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Methodist church. Business of importance will be brought before the body and it is desired that all members be present.

J. F. Madden left this morning for Tahlequah to attend the state meeting of the Anti-Horse Thief Association. He said that the attendance will likely reach 1,000 this time. Mr. Madden believes in boosting for his home town and county and carried with him a pocket full of the folders issued by the 25,000 club.

A. C. Fleig the M. O. and G. fireman who was charged with perjury a short time ago had his examining trial before Judge Brown today and was released on bond.

Editor Clark of the Wigwag was over from Francis this morning. He says the "Hustler" is making it too convenient for the people of his town to come to Ada to trade. They can make two trips per day if they are so disposed.

Judge L. C. Lindsey was up from Fitchburg today. He says it is barely possible that he will not move from Pontotoc county this year. He says he likes the county and its people and if he finds a desirable place may stay with us.

A Sunday school teacher, after reading the story of Ananias and Sapphira to the juvenile class, asked: "Now, children, why doesn't the Lord strike everybody dead who tells a lie?" "Cause," answered a bright little fellow "there wouldn't be anybody left, hardly."

Men in a position to know say that practically all the desirable places throughout the county have already been rented for next year, and much more is needed to supply the demand. New people are coming in and next year bids fair to see booming times all over Pontotoc county.

Gen. Brant Kirk, the noted humorist and late candidate for governor, arrived this morning to do some campaigning for the democratic ticket. He will go to Center with Robert Wimbish and John Crawford this evening, speak at Roff tomorrow afternoon and at Ada tomorrow evening.

Judge C. O. Barton left this morning for Franks and other points in that part of the county where he will make several speeches in the interests of the democratic party. The judge never growls at the county committee about anything but unless providentially hindered, goes where he is sent and does good work when he gets there.

To the person interested in the early history of Oklahoma and the Southwest the series of articles by J. B. Thoburn now appearing in Sturm's Oklahoma Magazine will prove especially attractive. Many of Mr. Thoburn's stories deal with matters that have never before been made a matter of record, and he is making exhaustive research in order to gain really authentic facts in early day events. The November number contains a story relating to old Camp Radzinski, which was located in the Wichita Mountains, near the site of the present town of Mountain Park. Mr. Thoburn is the compiler of a school text book which is accepted as a authority on Oklahoma history, and his stories in the Magazine are made particularly valuable because of the care exercised in gathering data.

Cotton Market Active.

Cotton is on the climb today. It is bring from 14c to 14.15c. There has not been a great deal on the streets today, however, so it is probable that many farmers are nearing the end of the season.

Preparing Tax Rolls.

County Clerk Kerr and his popular helper, Rit Erwin, are still hard at work on the tax rolls. They expect to complete these by November 1.

MAJESTIC DEMONSTRATION AT HAYNES' STORE

Perhaps it would not be quite accurate to say that the demonstration going on all this week at Haynes' hardware store is majestic, but it describes it exactly to say that as a demonstration of what the Majestic range will do it is something worth seeing. Hot biscuits and coffee of the most delicious kind are served to all visitors, who are then shown a few of the good points about the range. Its strong features are its superior baking qualities, small amount of fuel consumed and the fact that it is absolutely unbreakable. The asbestos lining holds the heat and keeps the range hot with very little fuel. The oven is dust proof and smoke proof. The bachelor editor of the News naturally judges a stove by the quality of grub it cooks, and from actual experience knows that the one above mentioned does the work.

Progress of Paving.

This morning the work of putting down the concrete base was begun on Townsend. East Main street was completed yesterday. It is still uncertain when the asphalt work will begin. The contractors have other work on which they have most of their best men and will probably complete some of that before beginning work here.

One thing is certain. A good job is being done here. Ada is fortunate in having an able engineer in P. G. Ekman and he insists on a close compliance with every detail of the contract.

A Benefactor.

A wealthy physician of the Pacific coast, Dr. McCutcheon, maintains a private aviary from which he releases each spring hundreds of singing birds. Gradually the great forests of the Puget Sound country that formerly were as silent as the aisles of a great cathedral are being made vocal with the notes of English sparrows, linnets, gold finches, thrushes and blackbirds. This surely is a better work than to hunt down the beautiful and useful creatures, that God has made, to adorn the hats of thoughtless women. The doctor is a unique benefactor to society, and the good that he does will live after him.

Wants 2c Decree Reviewed.

Washington, Oct. 24.—Frederick N. Judson of St. Louis today filed an application with the supreme court for a writ of certiorari on behalf of the state of Oklahoma, to the end that the supreme court review the interlocutory decree issued against the state which prevents its enforcing the 2c passenger fare. This decree was obtained against the state by eight Oklahoma railroads in the United States court for the Western district of Oklahoma and sustained in the court of appeals for the eighth circuit. It is to obtain a review of the case from the supreme tribunal of the land that the application for a writ of certiorari was filed today.

NORMAL NOTES.

Clifford Hardin is again in school, he having been out for three weeks on account of a fractured bone in his leg.

Harry Jones is back with us after a two weeks vacation on account of an attack of appendicitis. Everyone is glad to see these two young men back.

The football boys are getting into good form after some hard signal and scrimmage practice.

Lewis Brown, who has been trying out for right end will be out of the game on account of sickness. Lee McKinney will take his place.

A meeting will be held today to prepare yells and songs for the coming football game. There is no game that arouses as much genuine school spirit as does a football game.

The first football game of the season will be played on the normal grounds Friday Oct. 28 at 3 p. m. between the Weleetka High school team and the East Central Normal team. The Weleetka team is light but very fast, our boys, however, feel equal to the occasion, and an interesting game will be played.

Dr. Evans of the State University will be here Thursday, Nov. 3, and give an address in the afternoon at 3 o'clock. All who are interested in the work of the University are invited to come and hear Dr. Evans.

Stimson Money Scarce.

New York, Oct. 24.—Owing to the scarcity in Wall street of Stimson money the bankers who have been intrusted with money to be wagered on Dix, the democratic candidate for governor, are sharpshooting for bets on pluralities, majorities and the like.

A well-known stock exchange house announced this afternoon willingness to bet $1,000 to $10,000 that the vote for Dix will exceed the combined vote for Stimson and Hopper. Odds today remained 2 to 1 on Dix. One bet of $1,500 to $750, and one of $1,000 to $500 represented the big money put up during the day. There were a few small bets.

It is expected that the odds will lengthen within a day or two unless something happens to hearten up those who are figuring on betting on the chances of Stimson.

Oklahoma Women Protest.

Oklahoma City, Ok., Oct. 24.—"Paid under protest." This is the memorandum appearing on the stubs of five tax receipts delivered today to suffragettes, headed by Mrs. Ida Porter Boyer, secretary of the Oklahoma Woman's Suffrage Association.

"It was the fear of the money kings in the east that some profligate son-in-law in the early part of the last century might obtain possession of the wife's fortunes which secured for women in New York and Pennsylvania the right to hold property," said Mrs. Porter Boyer, "and now it is a question of being taxed without having any say as to how much the taxes shall be."

Others who protested were Mrs. Anna Laskey, Police Matron; Mrs. Julia Dunham, Dr. Ruth Gay and Mrs. George R. Stephens.

APPEARING OLD

Acts as a Bar to Profitable Employment.

You cannot afford to grow old. In these days of strenuous competition it is necessary to maintain, as long as possible, one's youthful appearance. It is impossible to do this without retaining a luxurious growth of hair. The presence of a burrowing germ which lives and thrives on the roots of the hair until it causes total baldness. Newbro's Herpicide is the only known destroyer of this pest, and it is as effective as it is delightful to use. Herpicide makes an elegant hair dressing as well as Dandruff cure. Accept no substitute—there is none. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

LIQUID CURES ECZEMA WHERE SALVES FAIL

In regard to skin diseases, medical authorities are now agreed on this: Don't imprison the disease germs in your skin by the use of greasy salves. A true cure of all eczematous diseases can be brought about only by using the healing agents in the form of a liquid.

WASH THE GERMS OUT.
A simple wash: A compound of Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol, and other ingredients as combined in the D. D. D. Prescription. This penetrates to the disease germs and destroys them, then soothes and heals the skin as nothing else has ever done.

A 25 cent trial bottle will start the cure, and give you instant relief. Ramsey Drug Co., West Main St. 2
